

Easter 2014

Where do we encounter the risen Jesus?

Alone, like Mary Magdalene in the garden? With a friend, in a meal, as at Emmaus? In a group, like the disciples, in the upper room? At work, like the disciples fishing in Galilee?

How do we encounter the risen Jesus?

In sorrow, like Mary? In fellowship, as at Emmaus? In confusion and fear, like the disciples of the upper room? Or in the midst of our everyday lives?